Staff Picks for Kids

Opposites

Ingrid and Dieter Schubert

Flying fish and dancing hippos take the reader on an exploration of the opposites of size, feeling, weather, movements, and states of being. This is a book of opposites that is truly on another level.

Sleeping Cinderella and Other Princess Mix-ups

Stephanie Clarkson

Sleeping Cinderella and Other Princess Mix-ups is an interesting story in which well-known, fairy tale princesses become fed up with their lives and decide to change places with each other. Sleeping Cinderella is amusing and well written. The art is beautiful with fun colors and details that really bring the story to life.

Vanished

Sheela Chari

Neela's normal school year gets turned upside down after receiving a valuable musical instrument, a veena, from her grandmother. When Neela's instrument vanishes from a local church, Neela finds out that there may be much more to the story – including a centuries-old curse that no one wants to talk about. Can Neela solve the mystery of her missing veena? More importantly, can she find a way to break the curse? Read on to find out!

TEEN PROGRAMS

Teen programs are for grades 6-12. For all teen programs, call 630.458.3319 or visit our website.

Listen In

Get cozy, eat some snacks, and relax as we listen to teen books read aloud. In September we'll feature one of the most challenged books of the year in celebration of Banned Books Week. In October, we'll terrify you with a scary story.

Wed., Sep. 26 and Oct. 24 3:30-4:30

Staff Picks for Teens

All American Boys

Jason Reynolds and Brendan Kiely

Issues of race take center stage in this novel told from the perspective of two boys, one white and one black. With compassion and complexity, the authors follow two characters forever changed by an act of police brutality and the public outcry that follows.

Leah on the Offbeat

Becky Albertalli

Fans of Simon vs. the Homo Sapiens Agenda have to read this sequel featuring his best friend, Leah. Even readers that missed the first, will fall in love with this eccentric coming-of-age story about a girl drummer whose relationships are messy, to say the least.

Technology Programs

iMovie Green Screen

Come make a green screen movie! Bring your acting skills so together we can create the best short green screen film ever.

Thu., Sep. 27 3:00-4:30

Make a Button

Make a spooky button, make a cute button, make any kind of button. No registration required.

Wed., Oct. 31 3:00-4:30

Make the Grade

You know you can ask a librarian to help you find your next great read, but did you know our teen librarians are also available for one-on-one help with essays and research projects?

Together, the Teen Specialists have 54 years of school and six degrees so they have lots of experience writing papers, including the night before it's due (in fact, that's one of Stephanie's superpowers). No matter what the subject, our teen librarians can help you research, outline, and edit a paper that's sure to impress your teacher.

Elizabeth

What is your degree in?

Art History

What was your favorite college class?

Art and Culture in Nazi Germany. I'm fascinated by graphic design and propaganda.

Tell us about the best paper you ever wrote.

The Influence of Yoruban Theater Traditions on the Nollywood Film Industry. Researching this paper was incredibly hard and it taught me just how valuable a friendly and knowledgeable librarian can be.

What style of student were you?

Planner. I got started very early, because I would get super stressed doing things at the last minute. It also gave me more time to read about the topic!

Courtney

What is your degree in?

History and Secondary Education

What was your favorite college class?

It's a tie between "The History of Evil People" and a meteorology Gen-Ed course.

Tell us about the best paper you ever wrote.

The Golden Age of Piracy: How Legends Became History. I loved looking into the truth behind the stories, and how they influenced each other to become history.

What style of student were you?

Professional Procrastinator. However, I've done a lot to get myself away from that habit.

Stephanie

What is your degree in?

History, Social Science, and Education

What was your favorite college class?

The Culture, Art, and History of the Civil War

Tell us about the best paper you ever wrote.

My capstone on the atomic bomb and World War II. I was inspired by Louie Zamperini and his biography Unbroken by Lauren Hillenbrand.

What style of student were you?

I plan everything, then procrastinate until 2am the night before papers are due.

If you want to schedule a one-on-one with a teen librarian, just call the Library or fill out an online form at addisonlibrary.org/content/teen-appointment
